SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection consists of microfilm copies of selected reference material in the Combined Arms Research Library, a branch of the Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. The material is divided into two series. The first series (8 reels) consists of reports by the Army Ground Forces branch of the U.S. Army on activities of U.S. military forces during World War II. The second series (3 reels) consists of reports on U.S. participation in Operation Market Garden in Holland in September 1944. The reports are arranged in numerical order by the document number assigned by the Combined Arms Research Library. Most of the reports were compiled during World War II, 1942-1945, although a few retrospective historical reports from after the war are also included.
